CREATIVE WONDERS – Where Little Minds Create Big Discoveries!
Science Exhibition (Classes III to V)

"Science is not only a discipline of reason but also one of imagination and creativity. It empowers young minds to explore, innovate and find solutions to real-world challenges."

Delhi Public School Gaya remains committed to fostering scientific temperament, innovation and experiential learning among its students. In keeping with this vision, a Science Exhibition for students of Classes III to V will be organised on 26.11.2026. The exhibition aims to provide students with a platform to showcase their creativity, scientific understanding and problem-solving abilities through innovative working models that address real-life issues.
